1 TRAIT MATCH

Carefully read the passage on the left. Then, match the character trait cards to the characters and explain how you know your answer is correct.

"Crunch, Crunch!"

"What was that?" I squeaked while pulling my sleeping bag tighter around my body. Why did I let them talk me into this camping trip?
 "You're such a wimp, Zach!" Mikey said while laughing.
 "I'm not a wimp! I just heard a sound outside of the tent," I explained.
 "I'm trying to sleep!" Kevin groaned into his pillow.
 "Who goes to sleep before dark on a camping trip?" asked Mikey with a laugh.
 "Someone who loves sleep!" Kevin grumbled.
 "Guys! Shouldn't we check what that sound was?" I reminded them.
 Kevin closed his eyes again, but Mikey unzipped the tent. I stuck my head out while he left the tent to walk around. I nervously watched.
 "Dude! You were getting scared over a squirrel! I knew you were being a wimp," Mikey laughed.
 "Call me what you want. I'd rather be safe than sorry!"

3 NAME THE TRAIT

Carefully read the text. What character trait would best describe the character?

- Noah is always making his friends and family laugh. He tells the best jokes, but never makes fun of other people. Noah can even make fun animal sounds that crack everyone up! His imitation of a cow is my very favorite!
Type
- After dinner, Chloe does the dishes. Mom does all of the cooking, so it just makes sense for Chloe to help with cleaning up. She doesn't love doing the dishes, but doing chores is just something you do for your family. Chloe loves her family!
Type
- Hannah, my older sister, is always telling me what to do. She thinks that just because she is three years older than me, she is in charge. This morning, Hannah woke me up just to tell me to sweep the kitchen floor! She even tried to tell me what to wear to school.
Type
- It doesn't look like Connor has cleaned his room in years! There are so many clothes on the floor, that you can't even see the carpet. His desk is piled high with books and his shelves are stuffed full of toys. His bed is unmade and there is an empty plate by his bed. Yuck!

2 WHO AM I?

Read the character descriptions and match them with the best character trait name.

- | | |
|--|-------------|
| 1. I was excited when I saw the 100% at the top of my spelling test! Then I noticed an error. I didn't really deserve the 100%. I went straight to my teacher to let her know. Who am I? | Active An |
| 2. Mom said that dinner would be ready at 6:00. It's now 6:30 and my tummy is growling. Dinner is still cooking. I am not going to complain. I will just wait. Who am I? | Patient Pat |
| 3. "I hate this show. Give me the remote now or I'll pull your hair!" I said to my little sister. Who am I? | Honest Her |
| 4. After school, I have softball practice. Then I will do my homework and eat dinner before heading to my church youth group. Who am I? | Rude Rya |
| 5. It was the perfect day for a bike ride. I put some sunscreen on my face. Then, I found my helmet in the garage. Time to ride! Who am I? | |
| 6. My teacher told us that we would be having a spelling test on Friday. I spent extra time each day studying my words so that I would be ready. Who am I? | |

The Borrowed Book

Sophia looked at the cover of her book, put it down, and began to cry. "Mrs. Smith is going to be so upset with me. What am I going to tell her?" Sophia thought. She knew how important it was to show responsibility when borrowing a book from her classroom library. She had just asked Mrs. Smith on Friday if she could take the book home over the weekend. She had promised to bring it back to school on Monday. Now, she sat on the edge of her bed and worried that her teacher would not understand that her younger brother had gotten hold of the book and had colored all over the cover.
